Report on the Firm's System of Quality Control

December 22, 2017

To G. J. Burns, LLC and the Peer Review Committee of the Massachusetts Society of CPAs.

We have reviewed the system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice of G.J. Burns, LLC in effect for the year ended June 30, 2017. Our peer review was conducted in accordance with the Standards for Performing and Reporting on Peer Review established by the Peer Review Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

A summary of the nature, objectives, scope, limitations of, and the procedures performed in a System Review as described in the Standards may be found at aicpa.org/prsummary. The summary also includes an explanation of how engagements identified as not performed or reported in conformity with applicable professional standards, if any, are evaluated by a peer reviewer to determine a peer review rating.

Firm's Responsibility

The firm is responsible for designing a system of quality control and complying with it to provide the firm with reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects. The firm is also responsible for evaluating actions to promptly remediate engagements deemed as not performed or reported in conformity with professional standards, when appropriate, and for remediating weaknesses in its system of quality control, if any.

Peer Reviewer's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the design of the system of quality control and the firm's compliance therewith based on our review.

Required Selections and Considerations

Engagement selected for review included an engagement performed under Government Auditing Standards.

Engagement selected for review included an audit of an Employee Benefit Plan.

As a part of our peer review we considered reviews by regulatory entities as communicated by the firm, if applicable, in determining the nature and extent of our procedures.
